

The project «Every Button Counts »was funded with the support of the European Union under the Programme "Europe for Citizens"

Applicable to the Strand 1 – European Remembrance

Participation: Event 5 of the project in UK involved 286 citizens (155 women and 131 men) , including 12 participants from Italy, Serbia and Poland in 8 activities in Huddersfield, UK. A further 1125 were reached indirectly and through dissemination activities. 6 million+ Charitable Trust, Huddersfield, UK, worked with 12 participants from 4 organisations from 3 countries.

Location/ Dates: The event took place in Huddersfield, UK from 22st – 26th January 2018 in the following locations:

- Activity 1: A session to share the creative contributions brought by partners from 4 countries
- Activity 2: A session to create a structure for a performance, including those contributions
- Activity 3: A session to reflect upon the experience and learning of the project
- Activity 4: A day of rehearsing the event and preparing an exhibition
- Activity 5: Delivering the Holocaust Memorial Day programme of events

Short description of the Project:

- To remember how Jewish refugees were treated across Europe during and following the Holocaust and compare that to the present day refugee crisis and Europe's response
- To look at stories of individuals within the context of the history of the Holocaust and contemporary conflicts
- To challenge ourselves to consider if we are doing enough to prevent genocide nationally and internationally.
- To encourage creative responses to these explorations from all participants in four countries
- To create a performance for Holocaust Memorial Day, highlighting the questions posed by participants and their responses expressed through image, writing, song and film.
- To share outcomes with a wider European audience
