The aims of the activities in Lublin were to:

- To remember how Jewish refugees were treated across Europe during and following the Holocaust and compare that to the present day refugee crisis and Europe's response
- To look at stories of individuals within the context of the history of the Holocaust and contemporary conflicts
- To challenge ourselves to consider if we are doing enough to prevent genocide nationally and internationally.
- To encourage creative responses to these explorations from all participants in four countries To create a performance for Holocaust Memorial Day, highlighting the questions posed by participants and their responses expressed through image, writing, song and film.
- To share outcomes with a wider European audience
